Capital punishment and implementation of the safeguards guaranteeing protection of the rights of those facing the death penalty

Report of the Secretary-General

Addendum

Corrigendum

Paragraphs 1 and 2 should read

1. Additional replies to the fifth quinquennial survey on capital punishment (E/1995/78), carried out in pursuance of Economic and Social Council resolution 1745 (LIV), have been received from Armenia, Canada, New Zealand, Japan and the Russian Federation. This brings the total number of responding countries to 62. The regional breakdown of all the responses received is as follows: 5 from North Africa and the Middle East, 5 from Africa south of the Sahara, 6 from Asia and the Pacific, 12 from Latin America and the Caribbean, 12 from Eastern Europe and 22 from Western European and other States.

2. Of the five responding countries, three retained capital punishment (Armenia, Japan and the Russian Federation), while one was abolitionist for ordinary crimes (Canada) and one was abolitionist for all crimes (New Zealand).

Delete paragraph 8 and renumber the remaining paragraphs accordingly.
